SCULPTURE IN SUMMER

at The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art

It's time to plan your July activities: don't miss out on a free Museum experience for children. Bring your youth group to the Nelson-Atkins and let our Teen Guides lead them on an adventure to discover sculpture at the Museum—indoors and outdoors.

Groups will enjoy looking activities and games while exploring the many reasons why sculptures are made and investigating the wide variety of materials used.

SUMMER 2011
