Inclement Weather Policy

Art Course is an outdoor activity, and may be subject to elements beyond our control. Inclement weather is defined as significant rain, lightning or tornado warnings that would make playing Art Course unsafe. A call to clear or close the course due to inclement weather will be made by the museum's Security team as necessary.

IN CASE OF INCLEMENT WEATHER:

Package 1

- If the event is before 2pm, a weather call will be made 24 hours prior.
- If the event is after 2pm, a weather call will be made by 10am the day of the event.
- Groups will be asked to reschedule to a later date/time.

Package 2

- A weather call will be made at 10am the day before the event.
- In case of inclement weather, groups have two options:
  1. Keep their scheduled event time and enjoy their food & beverage in Rozzelle Court or other indoor space. Then individual golf vouchers will be given to all guests. The vouchers can be used for a round of golf at a later date.
  2. Reschedule to a different date/time for both mini golf and food & beverage.
- If there is a weather interruption during play, individual vouchers for a complimentary round of Art Course will be issued to all attendees that may be used at a later date/time. Food and drinks can be enjoyed in Rozzelle Court.

Safety Precautions

Play at Your Own Risk.

The Nelson-Atkins is taking extra safety measures to ensure a fun and safe experience for all. The museum's frequently touched surfaces will be cleaned and disinfected often. Guests visit the museum at their own risk during the current pandemic, understanding that the Nelson-Atkins will be held harmless from that risk. Guests are also asked to verify their wellness. Those who have had a fever in the past 14 days, have not felt well, or have been exposed to COVID-19 within the past 14 days are asked to visit the museum another time. Guests are encouraged to wash hands frequently and use hand sanitizer. Guidelines for group size limits must be observed.

There is inherent risk in any mini golf activity due to uneven terrain, course obstacles and the nature of the game. We urge guests to use caution during play and to remain aware of their surroundings. Unsafe behavior will not be tolerated and guests engaging in such behavior will be asked to leave, without refund. By participating in Art Course, participants waive, release and discharge the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art and its employees from all liability associated with playing Art Course.
